Maxor Appoints New CFO at Pivotal Point in the Company's Transformation

Maxor National Pharmacy Services, LLC (Maxor) today announced the appointment of David G. Wheeler, CPA as Chief Financial Officer. Wheeler brings decades of executive leadership experience to Maxor, including more than fifteen years of experience as CFO and Board Member of other leading Prescription Benefit Managers.

Dave joins at an immensely important time. "This next chapter will be transformative for Maxor, further validating the investments we have made and the innovations we have introduced to expand upon our longstanding reputation for service and client-centered alignment. We are at an inflection point in the company's growth trajectory, and Dave's leadership experience, insights and industry relationships are critical additions at this exciting time," said Mike Ellis, CEO.

In this role, Wheeler will have responsibility for all finance functions to support the Company's strategic, operational, and financial performance objectives. The analyst and banking communities have widely acknowledged Dave's exceptional industry reputation. Wheeler formerly served as CFO and board member of MedImpact Healthcare Systems, Inc, where he played a central leadership role as the company grew substantially. In addition to other Director roles, he contributed his industry expertise as a member of WellDyneRx's Board of Directors after leaving MedImpact.

Wheeler is the latest addition to a growing team of talented leaders at Maxor. "We've been successful in attracting talent from all areas of the market, complementing very experienced and passionate people who have been with the company for years," said Ellis. "People are interested in coming to Maxor because of our culture and incredible growth story. We are thrilled that Dave has joined us."

"I am excited to join the company at such a significant time," said Wheeler. "The PBM landscape is in the midst of transformation, and Maxor is well-positioned to expand as an industry leader."
